In Word & Deed

In a homily about the afterlife, the pastor spoke about the doubts he had when, as a young man, he was trying to figure out the mysteries of God and whether or not heaven really existed. His doubts all but vanished when he attended the viewing of his friend's father. As everyone turned to leave, the wife of the man kissed him and said with great conviction and certainty, "Bye for now." Something in her voice and in her tone answered his questions and doubts, assuring him of God's existence and love. That small witness to faith changed his life.

In this Gospel, the images that Jesus uses are prophetic images that point to the end of time and the coming of the Lord. We are not told to look for the signs, but rather to have a sense of urgency about what we do and how we live. When it is time—and only the Father knows when that will be—we will recognize it. There is no need for fear or worry.

A life of faith does not allow for complacency, but rather demands an attitude of expectation and attentiveness. Today is the time to act and put into practice what we preach. Tomorrow is not time enough and we have no guarantee that tomorrow will come. Our chance is now. The task is not to wait and wonder when the Kingdom will come, but rather to work and pray so we are ready for it.

"The happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist."- Pope Benedict XVI

Come to Me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light. - Matthew 11:28-30

Saint Cecilia

THIRD CENTURY
FEAST DAY — NOVEMBER 22

Cecilia has been honored as a martyr since about 545. According to a written legend, The Passion of Saint Cecilia, she was a Roman Christian of the patrician class betrothed to the pagan Valerian. The Cecilia Passion has her singing to God in her heart on her wedding day. Cecilia tells Valerian she has made a vow of virginity and persuades him to convert to Christianity and enter into a celibate marriage. His brother, Tiburtius, also becomes a Christian. The brothers are later martyred. When Cecilia refuses to perform an idolatrous act, she too is martyred. Cecilia is the patron of musicians.

> This young Roman martyr invites believers to be watchful on their journey toward the encounter with Christ, gladdening the earthly pilgrimage with the festivity of music and song.
